Re: Mejia v. Uber Technologies, Inc.
Case No. 17-cv-61617 (United States District Court, Southern District of Florida)

Dear Mr. Mullins:

I am writing this open letter to convey my client, Jose Mejia's ("Mr. Mejia's"), public offer of settlement in the above-titled class action lawsuit.

As you know, Mr. Mejia is an Uber driver residing in Miami-Dade County with a valid Florida state concealed firearm license. In 2008, the Florida legislature enacted a very specific statute that protects the rights of those with concealed firearm licenses to exercise their right to conceal-carry in their motor vehicles. See Section 790.251, Florida Statutes ("Preservation and Protection of the Right to Keep and Bear Arms in Motor Vehicles Act of 2008"). In spite of the clear and unequivocal provisions of this law, your client Uber Technologies, Inc. ("Uber") has imposed a no-firearms policy on drivers. As a result, Mr. Mejia has retained undersigned counsel to represent him as putative class representative in the instant action against Uber.

Plaintiff hereby tenders the following settlement offer:

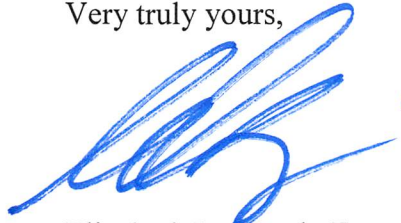

In consideration for dismissing his claims with prejudice, Defendant, Uber Technologies, Inc. shall do the following:

- rescind their policy of prohibiting Uber drivers from being able to conceal-carry in a manner consistent with Section 790.251 of the Florida Statutes;
- compensate Plaintiff in the amount of $10,000;
- compensate Plaintiff's counsel $30,000 for attorney's fees expended in the above-titled case and reimburse Plaintiff's counsel for any costs incurred as part of the litigation including, but not limited to court filing fees, and mediation costs, upon proper showing of receipts.

The terms of Plaintiff's settlement offer shall remain open until further notice. Plaintiff will dismiss this action with prejudice upon execution of a written settlement agreement by the parties. This offer shall expire automatically in the event the Court issues an order on any currently or future pending motions, including, but not limited to, your client's pending motion to compel arbitration in this case.

Very truly yours,

Elizabeth Lee Beck, Esq.
